

National Honor Society

Description: The National Honor Society is an organization that recognizes and encourages academic achievement as well as encouraging the development of those ideals essential to a democracy: scholarship, character, service, and leadership.

Meetings (time, place, and duration): As needed

Requirements for membership:

- *Students have a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 or higher
- *Students must fill out an application that is then reviewed by the Faculty Advisory Committee
- *Students must receive recommendations from faculty; faculty considers the remaining three ideals of leadership, character, and service

Sponsor / Contact Names: Lisa Wolfe (lwolfe@galesburg205.org) & Jennifer L. Robinson (jrobinson2@galesburg205.org)

Highlight activities: Participation in school events (i.e. Homecoming carnival), often “adopt” a family during the holiday season, all members perform 45 hours of community service.